REPAYMENT PLAN DISCLOSURES & REGULATORY NOTICE:

- Interest Capitalization: Unsubsidized and Parent PLUS loans accrue interest daily from disbursement. Unpaid accrued interest is added (capitalized) to principal balances when entering active repayment.
- Standard 10-Year Plan: The default federal plan featuring fixed equal monthly payments for 120 months.
- Repayment Assistance Plan (RAP): Available for Direct Student Loan borrowers under federal guidelines. RAP monthly payments are calculated based on prior-year Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) on a sliding scale (1% to 10% of AGI) and claimed dependents ($50/mo reduction per dependent), with a mandatory minimum payment of $10.00/month. RAP waives unpaid monthly interest for on-time payments, preventing runaway debt growth.
- Parent PLUS Loan Terms: Parent PLUS loans are the sole legal responsibility of the parent borrower and cannot be transferred to the student. PLUS loans are not eligible for RAP. If an income-driven plan is required by the parent, the loan must first be consolidated into a Federal Direct Consolidation Loan to access the Income-Contingent Repayment (ICR) plan.

Dependent Students

What to Expect

Under 24 you are dependent even if

- You don't live with parents.
- Parents do not provide financial support.
- Parents refuse to help pay for college.
- Parents don't claim you on tax return.
- Parents don't want to complete the FAFSA.

How Do Parent PLUS Loans Work?

6 Facts about Direct PLUS Loans

Parents can take out PLUS loans to pay for their child's undergrad education

The borrowing limit on a PLUS loan is the cost of attendance (minus any other financial aid)

The repayment plans for PLUS loans include the Standard 10-year, Graduated and Extended plans.

Graduate or professional degree students can also take out PLUS loans

Parent borrowers who consolidate may qualify for income-contingent repayment

The interest rate on PLUS loans are fixed and include a fee.

What is a parent or "PLUS" loan?

- With a PLUS loan, parents/stepparents can borrow up to the total cost of an education, minus any other aid the student may receive.
 - For example, if the cost is $6,000 and the student receives $4,000 in other financial aid, parents may borrow up to $2,000.

PLUS LOAN

If one parent cannot borrow PLUS, the student does not have to turn to another parent to do so. In cases where one parent cannot borrow, the student can receive the additional unsubsidized loan even if the other parent is reported on the FAFSA.

However, if one parent is denied and the other parent does apply and is approved for PLUS, the student is not eligible for the additional unsubsidized loan funds.
